He chose it for its big car prestige

ASTONISHING how many people who formerly paid high prices for the privilege of big car ownership are now turning to Pontiac. But it's not at all surprising when you consider Pontiac as the Big Six it is, instead of the low-price class in which its cost places it.

It's a car you can refer to with a sense of pride... a car that will more than justify your confidence in its prowess. Just see it and drive it if you'd learn why experienced and exacting motorists choose Pontiac for the Big Six prestige it provides.

ALBERTA'S MINERAL PRODUCTION INCREASING

Alberta with a mineral production valued at $32,367,781 contributed 11.84 per cent. of the total production in Canada in 1928, according to the recently issued preliminary report of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. As an indication of the steadily growing importance of Alberta's mining industry, the corresponding figures for the two previous years are $29,309,223 in 1927 and $26,977,027 in 1926. In the value of production Alberta stands fourth among the provinces of the Dominion, being exceeded in this respect by Ontario, British Columbia and Quebec.

The importance of the mineral developments which have taken place in the province is indicated by the following quotation from the report: "Alberta so far has little to show in the way of metal mining. Coal production made good headway. Natural gas production also reached a new record. Crude petroleum reached a record output. Bituminous sand deposits were carefully developed during the year, and much progress was made. Cement and other building materials were all produced in quite large quantities, and the total production indicated a very real growth in the mining industry of the province."

The greatest contribution to the year's production was made by the coal mines of the province with an output of 7,355,489 tons valued at $23,517,988. Oil and gas value in the province yielded 14,337,115,000 cubic feet of natural gas valued at $3,391,212 and 488,268 barrels of petroleum worth $1,787,807. In this connection it is interesting to note that Alberta natural gas made up 63.9 per cent. of the Dominion production in volume and 41 per cent. in value, and in the case of petroleum the output of Alberta wells represents 79 per cent. of the volume and 80.8 per cent. of the value of the total Dominion production.

Clay products and brick manufacturing in the province during the past year are valued at $1,488,800, and in this respect Alberta's production stands next to that of Ontario and Quebec. Cement, lime, stone and sand and gravel contribute a further $2,182,130, while 94 tons of bituminous sands valued at $374 are included in the year's production. Among the metallic minerals the only ones mentioned in the Alberta report are 68 fine ounces of gold worth $1,406 and 7 fine ounces of silver valued at $4,179.

ENTERTAIN FOR MISS NORMA McCONNOCHIE

Under the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Askin, Saturday evening, March 30th, the young people of Sunny Brae spent a very pleasant evening in a farewell party given for Miss Norma McConnochie who leaves in the near future for her new home in Edmonton where she will later enter into training in University Hospital. Part of the evening was taken up with a programme of musical selections, readings and recitations in which all present took part.

The closing number on the programme was the reading of an address to Norma, when Miss Kathleen Knowles came in and presented her with a nurses suit case.

Mr. Andrew Smart who acted as chairman, made a few fitting and touching remarks after which all signed their names to the address, then joining hands sang, "For Auld Lang Syne" after which all prepared to leave for home thanking Mr. and Mrs. Askin for the pleasant evening.

SOLIDER SETTLERS' FARMS BEING REVALUED

Good progress is being made in the revaluation of farms occupied by soldier settlers according to announcements made by officials of the Dominion Land Settlement Branch. A good start was made with this work last fall and inspectors of the Settlement Branch will continue their duties along this line in many districts in the province as soon as conditions permit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peterson returned Saturday after a very pleasant trip through British Columbia and the Western States. They spent nearly three months with their two sons in California but were both glad to get back to Sunny Alberta. Mr. Peterson met a great many people in California who were interested in the prospects in Alberta and who signified their intention of trying to move to Alberta in the near future. General conditions do not seem to be as good in California as they are in Alberta and B. C. from what Mr. Peterson could learn.

BABY DEEF BRINGS RECORD PRICE

A record price was established at the Calgary Spring Show during the past week when the first prize calf in the Boys' and Girls' Calf Feeding Competition sold for three dollars a pound. This calf, an Aberdeen Angus, shown by Harold Richardson of Bowden, was an outstanding winner in its class. It was purchased by Mrs. Hind of Hind's Meat Market, Calgary, and at a weight of 440 pounds, brought its young owner the handsome return of $2,820.

"BETTER SEED CAMPAIGN" SUCCESSFUL

General satisfaction is expressed throughout the province with the results of the campaign to promote the use of better seed grain recently carried on under the direction of the Department of Agriculture. A marked improvement in the quality of seed used last year was noted as the result of a similar campaign and it is hoped that a corresponding improvement will be apparent in the 1929 crop.

"Son, is that tobacco smell on your breath?" asked a Kinsella mother of her boy. "Yes, mother," he replied. "Then you will have to stop going out with those girls," she said.

Heard at the poker party: "Did you give your wife that little talk on economy?" "Yes." "Get any results?" "Yes—I've got to give up smoking."

Heard at the dance: "That Irma fellow is taking a course in aviation." "Has he done any flying yet?" "No, but his Viking girl has given him the air."

Heard at the school house, Teacher: "What is raised mostly in damp climates?" Student: "Umbrellas."

It used to take four sheep to dress a woman, says an expert. But now a silk worm can do it.

"You'll freeze stiff waiting here for your girl," said a local citizen who saw a local fellow standing on a waitress in a Jarro restaurant. "Do you know what kind it is?" the waitress asked in surprise. "No," said the travelling man, "but it sounds good."

Canada's Future

In a very fine address by Mr. Graham Spry, secretary of the Association of Canadian Clubs, and printed in "The Canadian Nation," the subject of Canadian unity is dealt with under the title "One Nation, Two Cultures," which was likewise the heading over the article appearing in this column last week. In fact, last week's article was inspired by Mr. Spry's address.

In his speech, Mr. Spry urged that, above all, the two Canadian races should be frank with each other, speak out their feelings freely and courteously, and attack that underlying menace, the fear, the suspicion which ignorance breeds; and "working for common national ends, working the same national institutions, and developing the same national estate, they will learn to know each other, to recognize each as a Canadian, to feel a sense, not of fear, but of partnership."

"One nation, two cultures; one nationality, two races; one loyalty, two tongues, on this the Dominion of Canada is founded, on this the partnership rests by solemn contract, by mutual trust. And thus it must abide or perish. Let it abide, and the nation will grow greater, and the world richer than two races, full of spirit, rich in the heritage that time endows, a tongue, a culture, each their own and shared at times in common, may live in amity as one, secure, serene, partners in the development of the noble estate to which we are fortunate successors. Let it fail, let race seek to dominate race, let prejudice take its reins and ride rough shod through the fine bonds that unite us and Confederation shall perish, and the peoples of Canada be thrust towards a future, dark and impenetrable."

Looking back over the sixty-odd years of Confederation, can any one imagine what the position of the present Dominion of Canada would be had the Canadian people of both races in 1867 not agreed to sink their differences and agree upon compromise policies and enter into a solemn compact, with each other, both for the present and the future. Had such agreement not been reached there would have been no Confederation. Had there been no Confederation what would in all likelihood be the position and status of British North America today?

Would it be British? It is extremely doubtful. Long ere this it is highly probable that large sections of what is now Canada would have become merged in the United States. Certain it is that failing Confederation, the isolated Crown colonies would have remained weak, undeveloped. Instead, we have a great and prosperous Dominion, rapidly forging to the front as one of the great nations of the world, a tower of strength to the Empire, and already exerting no mean influence in the councils of the nations. The union effected by the solemn guarantees of the act of Confederation was not alone the creation of the Dominion; it was the salvation of the country at large.

Not only must the letter of that contract be lived up to, but the spirit must be observed. Failure on the part of the Canadian people, whether of British or French extraction, to recognize both the letter and the spirit of the union effected by Confederation will be fatal to its existence. And if Confederation fails, what are we to put in its place? Confederation is weakened by sniping tactics on the part of one race against the other, and if Confederation is weakened it may perish. On the other hand, cordial acceptance of the spirit of the Confederation pact, which we all inaugurate annually on Dominion Day, will add strength to the structure, and enable a united Canadian people to resist all attacks upon their sovereignty and develop in peace their great heritage.

As Mr. Graham Spry truly states, any other future for Canada but that bound up in full acceptance of terms and spirit of the Confederation pact is indeed dark and impenetrable.

Utilizing Waste Product

Hot Water From Pueblo Factories Cleans Ice From Streets

Hot water as a waste product from ice plants and other factories of Pueblo, is being used by the city highway department to remove snow and ice from the highways. Street sprinklers and flushers are filled with the hot water and driven to the downtown streets. With one sprinkler following another, both directing streams of hot water onto the pavement, snow and ice melt immediately and are drained away. The hot water, obtained free, saves the city large amounts usually spent shoveling and hauling snow off the streets.

The trouble about mild weather which saves fuel bills lies in the fact that too often the saving has to be paid to the doctor.

Prisoner For Eight Years

Russian Boy Punished By Father For Joining Red Army

A story of an eight-year imprisonment of a boy by his father in a pit near their hut in the village of Sackchukovo, Kurak province, has been brought to Moscow. In 1918 young Tarasoff joined the Red Army and three years later returned to his native village filled with enthusiasm for the new order. His reactionary father told him "the red army marches against the Czars and you must not serve its ranks."

According to the report, that night old Tarasoff dug a deep cave in his garden and binding his son hand and foot threw him into the pit apparently to keep him there until the return of the old order. Recently the father died and the villagers, changing upon the living grave, mutilated the worn and wrinkled man who although only 29 years of age had snow white hair. He was said to have been placed in a hospital.

PAINS IN THE BACK

These Are Usually Due To a Weakened Condition Of the Blood

The muscles of the back are constantly under heavy strain, and have but little rest throughout the day. They are therefore in need of all the nourishment and strength that plenty of pure red blood can give them. Unless they have this help, you will have backache and continue to have it.

Backache seldom or never means kidney trouble. It is nothing more than the sign of a worn-out muscle of the back showing their exhaustion because of the lack of good, pure blood. The one generally recognized efficient blood builder is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When the blood has been improved through the use of this medicine, backache disappears. Mrs. E. Fairbank, Essex, Ont., tells what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for her in a case of this kind. She says: "I suffered for nearly three years with a weak back. At times the pains were so bad that I had to walk half-dressed over my head. I tried several doctors with very little benefit. A friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I did so, and oh, the joy of once more being able to stand up straight without suffering intense pain. After using two boxes there was no doubt in my mind that I was cured. I used eight boxes in all and have not since had a sign of the trouble. I can do all my household work and feel tired and worn out no more. For all this I thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

If your dealer does not keep these pills you can get them by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

So Sympathetic

Mrs. Morningcall—Where's your magnificent big dog? You don't mean to tell me you've sold him.

Mr. Nicklepinch—Yes, we sold him. It seemed a shame for a dog to occupy that commodious dog house this winter when so many people are homeless and we disposed of him and rented his home to an artist.

The worms that infest children from their birth are of two kinds, those that find lodgement in the stomach and those that are found in the intestines. The latter are the most destructive, as they cling to the walls of the intestines and if not interfered with work havoc there. Miller's Worm powders dislodge both kinds and while expelling them from the system serve to repair the damage they have caused.

Mike was engaged to do a job for Mr. Smith.

After a while he came in saying the job was completed and asked for his money.

"But, Mike, I wanted two coats of paint on that building," said Mr. Smith.

"Begorra, you've got it," said Mike. "I mixed the first coat with the paint for the second and put both coats on at the same time. Speed is my motto."

Opportunity For Canadians

Several Positions Are Open On Staff Of League Of Nations At Geneva

Opportunity for young Canadians who wish to live in the beautiful city of Geneva, and to become associated with the work of the League of Nations, is offered by a notice from the Civil Service Commission of Canada, circulated for the authorities of the League, which invites applications for one important and two lesser positions. Competitions are open to men and women.

The chief position advertised is that of secretary of the narcotic division of the permanent central board of the League. Applicants must speak both French and English, be under forty-five years of age, have knowledge and experience of administrative and secretarial work and be trained statisticians. Preference will be given to those having experience or knowledge of the narcotic problem, and any familiarity with the languages of Eastern and Far Eastern countries. The salary attached to this post is about $1,300 per annum.

A statistician at a salary of approximately $1,700 a year is also required for the same division who must be bilingual and well qualified in commercial statistics. A secretary shorthand and typist is the third job, which calls for an experienced stenographer with some knowledge of drafting, filing and translation. This post carries the salary of $1,700 per annum. Annual increases of $50, are granted for the two last jobs up to a maximum of $2,500 a year.

Those interested are requested to send their applications not later than April 1st, to the Secretary of the Appointments Committee of the League of Nations, at Geneva.

It is pointed out by those in charge of the central headquarters of the League of Nations Society in Canada, that quite a number of Canadians have made outstanding reputations in the work of the League, at Geneva, and that positions of those kind offer a splendid opportunity to ambitious people from the Dominion as promotion or transfer to more important work is practically certain. If those getting the appointments show special aptitude in the League's activities.

Cold Killed B.C. Beaver

Many Imprisoned In Lakes Which Were Frozen To Bottom

Thousands of beaver are believed to have perished in their homes in the lakes and streams of interior British Columbia as a result of the recent protracted cold spell.

Harry Smith, who has trap-lines in the Aberdeen Lake and Grizzly Swamp country, reports that many of the little animals are dead in the higher altitudes and he bases his belief on the observations of a woodsman of many years experience. When all is well in the beaver huts said Smith, snow soon melts on the tops. Now there are heavy blankets of snow on all the houses along the traplines.

Smith believes that as the water was low in the lakes the entrance to the beaver huts was in shallow water. Heavy frosts came before the snow. The result is that many lakes are frozen to the bottom and the beaver imprisoned therein.

Monarchy Divides Germany

Many Incidents Show People Still Cling To Old System Of Rule

Many incidents are constantly happening in Germany to show that the people are still sharply and incurably divided over the question of the monarchy. At Breslau a motion picture of the city council to remove the statues of three former emperors, including the ex-kaiser, and to rename streets in honor of revolutionary heroes occasioned a bitter fight but was passed by a vote of 40 to 38. At Nimptsch, Silesia, when guests entered a hall on the occasion of a state dinner the portraits on the walls of three former kaisers were seen to be covered. This precipitated a sharp quarrel and conflict which broke up the party.

Shipping Is Handicapped

On account of an outer and inner bar across the channel connecting Lake Maracibo with the Gulf of Venezuela, only vessels drawing less than 12 feet of water can enter the port, with the result that but two shipping companies, one American and one Dutch, maintain a weekly passenger and freight service between New York and Maracibo.

Competes With Canada

Forty or fifty years ago, Denmark was a grain producing country. Then the Western Canadian prairies began to export grain cheaper than Denmark could grow it, and so she turned to dairy farming and its natural complement hog raising. Now she competes with Western Canada in selling bacon to England.

Capture Will Be Painless

New Invention To Be Used On Animals For Durbur Zoo

For the first time in history wild animals are to be captured painlessly for the Durbur Zoo.

Authorities of Pretoria Zoo have commissioned Captain Burnett Harris, the inventor of the so-called "mercy bullet," to carry out this task.

This bullet is practically equivalent to a hypodermic needle. The animal who receives it will feel no more than if it had been brushed by a thorn. The bullet itself contains drugs.

Expansion Of Manufacturing In Prairie Provinces Expected To Proceed At a Rapid Rate

No sooner does an originally agricultural community tend to become stabilized and develop community centres than an effort begins to build up local industries. This tendency grows as the years pass on even without the additional impetus received when, besides a productive soil, the country is also found to contain valuable minerals. This has been the history of the Prairie provinces, especially in the post-war period, when it has been found that the rich mineral belt of Quebec and Ontario extends westward along the same parallels. Industrialization, therefore, is likely to proceed even more rapidly than heretofore, more especially should the natural resources of these provinces be restored unrestricted.

These provinces, long dependent upon external sources for manufactured products are more than ever set on achieving complete economic independence and are gradually accomplishing it. The period, indeed is rapidly approaching when the cities of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will pride themselves on their industrialization just as do the much older Eastern centres and conduct as ardent a propaganda for the stimulation of their local enterprises. Already in Manitoba, the output of manufactured goods is approaching the value of its farm products. Last year its industries turned out goods valued at $139,252,000.

Dominion Government statistics, indeed, indicate that farming is already in second place to industry in that Province now. Revenue from farming in Manitoba in 1927 amounted to $115,074,000, whereas the value of manufacturing production in the Province in 1926 was $132,718,522. Manitoba, being the longest established of the three provinces and the tendency of industries being to move west, the trend is much more pronounced here than in the sister provinces. According to the Manitoba industrial development board, a 21 per cent. increase was recorded last year in the Province's manufacturing output, the greatest growth being in steel, iron and paper products produced. In the period some sixty-two new industries were established with several other important locations foreshadowed.

The future will see an expansion of manufacturing in the Prairie Provinces at an increasing rate in the consistent effort to reduce the volume of imported necessities. It is not, however, to be anticipated that over the territory as a whole agriculture will ever take second place to manufacturing, but that rather the two will extend along parallel lines, each providing ever larger markets for the other. Industrialization should only increase western Canadian agricultural opportunity by building up a larger domestic consuming population and increasing the need for new farmers.

To Hasten Grain Planting

Day and night grain planting may be tried in Germany to avert a possible serious shortage of bread supplies during the coming year. German agricultural leaders, faced with small crops resulting from the February cold wave, are of the opinion that 24-hour planting is the only solution to the difficulty.

Revised Rules For Hog Grading Adopted

Definite Classification Is Provided For In New Regulations

New hog grading regulations, which have been under consideration by the department of agriculture for a considerable time, have been passed by order-in-council and will become law upon official promulgation. It was announced by Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture.

The new regulations provide for definite classification of bacon and non-bacon hogs, involving revision of grades so that hogs heretofore will be graded as nearly as possible in accordance with their actual commercial value.

Packers have undertaken to try to maintain the spread of 50 cents per 100 pounds between "selects" and "bacons" and all other grades have been left to find their own market level in accordance with the principle agreed to at the 1926 swine conference in 1927.

The new regulations also provide for the compulsory grading of all hogs at local shipping points in accordance with the official grades.

"During the past year the federal department has had an opportunity to test out the practicability of country grading and are satisfied that it is feasible. Under this new regulation it will now be possible to get the information regarding the grade back to the farmer, as was requested by the producers' representatives at the 1927 swine conference held in Ottawa," Mr. Motherwell's statement.

Other changes involve strengthening of the wording of the regulations from a legal standpoint, with a view to eliminating as far as possible the need for litigation in their enforcement.

Expansion Of Motor Traffic In Britain

Ownership Of Cars Is Growing By About 100,000 Annually

The notion that the United States has a monopoly on motor traffic expansion is discredited by a report to the American section of the International Chamber of Commerce from Paris on the growth of motor car ownership in Great Britain.

This, it is said, is mounting by about 100,000 cars annually, rising from 384,000 in 1923, to 787,000 in 1927. "This year's figures," the report continues, "will probably be near to the 'potential' 787,000 suggested by the Society of Motor Manufacturers on the basis of national income statistics. The latter body believes, however, that the inclusion of private cars owned by business firms, and the growing popularity of the 'baby' car of seven or eight horsepower, may raise the potential figure of 950,000 or 1,000,000."

"Within the home market the British manufacturer has secured 82 per cent. of last year's new car sales in Great Britain—and so long as he enjoys the double protection of 33 1/3 per cent. import duty and a tax-and-system based on horsepower his supremacy does not appear likely to be seriously threatened."

Three Prairie Provinces Are Anxious To Extend Boundaries Northward To Arctic Circle

Soviets Suppress Religion

New Law Forbids Any Gathering Of a Religious Nature

Reports come from Russia about new attempts to suppress religion. A new law has been published, by which it is intended to limit by force even private worship. It forbids every gathering or meeting of a religious nature of women, children or young men. Religious libraries or reading rooms are no longer to be maintained. All objects to be used in religious worship are declared national property, and may only remain in the hands of religious communities in the form of a loan. All public worship in public squares, likewise all festivals in hospitals and prisons, are forbidden. In the latter they may only be practiced for those who are seriously ill and who expressly ask for them. These renewed efforts are due to the great increase in religious interest of late amongst the Russian peasants.

Provincial Trade Marks

Indian Symbols Are Suggested To Distinguish Certain Products

The North American Indian was a master of pictorial condensation. Every totem told a story and told it well, and in Western Canada the proposal has been mooted that by a reversion to these totemic types much could be done in the way of devising trade marks for provincial products.

The marking of goods with some distinctive label has become an important factor in economics and there is more in the suggestion than meets the casual eye. The symbols employed by the red man are unique, yet capable of infinite adaptation, and in time we may yet see on commodities a Koozoonick, or the head of a Haida chieftain, informing us at a glance of the country of origin.

Of British Origin

Investigation has disclosed that there is British blood in 87 out of the 95 members of the United States Senate, a fact which may have some influence on the voting when the quota question for immigration is raised again. Among the United States people as a whole the British strain is only 43 per cent. so it would appear to have a particular affinity for politics.

Health Brings Happiness

It has been said that "a hale cobbler is better than a sick king." Health is better than wealth, because wealth cannot be enjoyed without health. One's desires and needs cannot be satisfied if the health is poor. Health brings happiness.

20,000 people are killed yearly by snakes in India.

If the Dominion government grants the requests of Alberta and Saskatchewan that the northern boundaries of these two provinces be extended to the Arctic Circle will add approximately seven-tenths to its present area, while Saskatchewan will increase its present area by one and two-fifths of the existing territory.

Alberta covers at present 255,235 square miles of land and water. Premier Brownlee's proposal to extend Alberta's boundaries clear through to the Arctic, would add some 175,000 square miles of new territory to the province.

Saskatchewan's present acreage—land and water—is 251,700 square miles. The northern territory which Premier Gardiner would add to that province, is approximately 300,000 square miles in extent.

The requests, if accepted, would make Saskatchewan's area in square miles, 611,700, and Alberta's, 430,235 square miles.

The area of the provinces at present is as follows: Quebec, 703,653 square miles; Ontario, 407,262 square miles; Manitoba, 251,822 square miles; Saskatchewan, 251,700 square miles; Alberta, 255,235 square miles; British Columbia, 355,535 square miles.

Extension of the boundaries of Saskatchewan to include the vast sub-Arctic region lying west of the Hudson Bay and south of the Arctic Ocean, would add to the province a territory covering between 350,000 and 400,000 square miles, populated by a few hundred Eskimo, Indians, and half-breeds, and a handful of R.C.M.P. officers.

With the extension of boundaries as indicated by Premier Gardiner's request on behalf of the Saskatchewan government, the province would have an area of about 650,000 square miles, or about 33,000 square miles less than the area of Quebec.

Saskatchewan's bid for an outlet to the sea and extended territory in the north has drawn a counter demand from Hon. John Erskine, premier of Manitoba, for more land for Manitoba.

Manitoba has had its boundaries extended three times since the province was formed in 1870 when Manitoba was known as "the postage stamp province," bounded by a line running north and south east of the city of Brandon, and east and west on a line, running a little north of Winnipeg.

In 1888 a bill was introduced into the Dominion parliament, and passed without debate, adding 100,000 square miles to the Province of Quebec. In 1912, Acts were passed adding 351,780 square miles to Quebec, 146,000 square miles to Ontario, and 180,000 square miles to Manitoba. A short time before this an Order-in-Council was passed by the Borden government granting Ontario a strip of land 250 miles long and five miles wide through the Province of Manitoba to the Nelson River to give Ontario access to Port Nelson.

Is Sparsely Populated

Although Brazil is nearly as large as Europe and larger than the United States, if Alaska is excepted, its estimated population is only about 30,000,000, or a little more than the states of New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Colorado. Its four largest states have an average population of only one person to two square miles.

January Building Permits Higher

January's building permits for all Canada have doubled since 1920, having risen from $4,017,024 in that year to $8,334,670 in 1929. This is due, in part, to a natural expansion, and also to the fact that building operations are not now halted in mid-winter as they once were.

DAYTONA BEACH TRAGEDY

In one of the most spectacular and tragic denouements of Daytona Beach racing track history, Lee Bible, driver of J. M. White's speed-demon car, "Triplex," seeking to surpass the 231 mile world's record, set two days before by Major H. O. D. Segrave, crashed to the sand dunes and death at 202 miles an hour, snuffing out, at the same time, the life of Charles Traub, a news reel cameraman. The accident occurred before 20,000 spectators who lined the mile course and saw Bible flash by the starting point. The layout here shows: (1) Lee Bible, 42-year-old Daytona Beach garage mechanic, driver of "Triplex," J. M. White's racing car, who was killed; (2) and (3) Mrs. Segrave congratulating her famous husband, Major H. O. D. Segrave and (4) the huge crowd at Daytona Beach, Florida, who witnessed Segrave's victory and similar to the one that witnessed Bible's tragic end.

W. C. T. U.

FUTURE OF THE TRADE In February, 1915, the English Brewers' Journal contained this statement:—"We mean to reiterate in these columns a factor which we believe to be at the bottom of all public life in relation to alcohol: it is that, yearly, tens of thousands of alcohol drinkers die. With the rising generation—and whether or not they take to alcohol—rests the future of the trade, commercially, politically and economically." There it is, cold, cynical, inhuman; the advice to use public life, skilful advertising to entice the rising generation to take to alcohol, so that the profits of the Liquor Traffic may be assured, and so that an alcoholized population may make the Liquor Traffic safe politically.

It is our responsibility and our sacred obligation to do our utmost to thwart this soulless and fiendish principle, that regards the child merely as a contributor to profits and disregards the physical moral, and spiritual welfare of the race.

To Check "FLU," Grippe

Fights the Germs in the Throat Before They Invade Other Parts of the Body.

EFFECTIVE PREVENTIVE MEASURES EXPLAINED

Simple precautions taken now will enable you to fight dreaded "Flu" which is sweeping rapidly through the whole country. The germs of influenza gain access to the body through the mouth and throat. Keep the throat healthy and you go a long way towards stopping the trouble. An effective means of prevention is to gargle the throat three or four times daily with Nervilleine. Half a teaspoonful of Nervilleine in water makes a most efficient gargle. The germ-killing properties of Nervilleine quickly destroy any bacteria in the mouth or throat. If the chest is sore, if the throat is hoarse, if you have a cough—be sure, to rub the neck and chest with Nervilleine. Every drop of it will rub in, and out will come the congestion.

Of course it is absolutely necessary to house-clean the system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills which stimulate the eliminating organs, and rid the system of disease-breeding wastes. This combination treatment of Nervilleine and Dr. Hamilton's Pills will give prompt and entirely satisfactory results.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

The Canadian Pacific Railway contemplates constructing a modern hotel in London, England. It is revealed in the annual report of the company.

Over two-thirds of the immigrants who entered Canada during the ten months of the current fiscal year came either from Britain, the United States, or preferred country sources.

The Edmonton Exhibition this year celebrates its fiftieth anniversary, the first show having been held within the walls of Fort Edmonton in 1879.

For the eleven months of the current fiscal year April 1, 1928, to February 28, 1929, immigration to Canada totaled 152,911, an increase of 15,979, or 12 per cent, over the corresponding period in 1927-28.

Reindeer racing is to be tried in Vancouver where a "stud" of twenty reindeer has been established and six Eskimo drivers are being trained to race their novel steeds round the track.

The British Admiralty has awarded a "good service" pension of $750 per annum, beginning March 1, to Captain Kenneth C. B. Dewar, formerly commander of H.M.S. Royal Oak, who figured in a notable court-martial at Gibraltar last April.

Carl B. Eickson, of Hinton, N.D., pilot for Captain Sir George Hubert Wilkins on his North Pole flight, was awarded the Harmon trophy for 1928, which is given to the U.S. flier making the greatest contribution to aviation during the year.

A Vancouver dispatch to the Montreal Gazette says: "The Duke of Gloucester (Prince Henry), who has left London for Japan, to invest the Emperor with the insignia of the Order of the Garter, is expected to return home via Canada. It is understood the Duke will spend a holiday at his brother's ranch at High River, Alta."

NEW BABY DISTURBS TIRED OFFICE WORKER

"When my oldest boy was just a few weeks old he was badly constipated from my milk," says a Nebraska mother. "He kept us awake so much, my husband almost slept over his desk at the office. Then my doctor got us to give baby some Castoria and the next day he was much better. His stomach and bowels began acting perfectly and he gave us no more trouble." Avoid imitations of Castoria. The Fletcher signature marks the genuine, purely vegetable, harmless Castoria, doctors everywhere advise for those ill of babies and children, such as colic, constipation, colds, biliousness, etc.

Queer Role in India
There is a rule in India that a younger daughter may not marry before the elder. In case the younger wishes to marry however, the way out is to marry the elder daughter to a tree or large flower, the case being taken that it be not a pine, poplar or elder, for these are sacred and it is difficult to get a divorce from any of these.

One of the "Young Ambassadors" who visited Canada last summer, Frederick Thomas Mage, of Old Kent Road, London, England, will return to Canada to take up farming.

Money In Fish Scales

Product Makes Essence Used In Manufacture Of Jewelry

The boast of the modern meat-packing industry, that all the pig is utilized except its squeal, is now followed by the announcement of the Maine fishing industry, that all the fish is being utilized, even its scales.

Pearl essence plants at Portland and at other points along the Maine coast are offering seven cents a pound for fish scales, and tons of scales formerly discarded by fishermen have been sold this season at a total price estimated at $250,000.

One hundred pounds of the scales, for which the essence factories pay $7, are required to produce one pound of pearl essence, valued at $125, in the New York market. The essence, after elaborate processing, is used in the manufacture of beads, necklaces and miscellaneous jewelry.

The spinning and weaving of cotton is one of the most important and largest of the manufacturing industries in Portugal.

Melt the butter in the top part of the double boiler, add the onion, and cook it gently till yellowed, about five to eight minutes. Pour in the milk and water, set over the lower part of the double boiler and scald. Mix the flour, salt and pepper with enough cold water to make a smooth cream; stir it into the milk, and cook about fifteen minutes, stirring occasionally. Heat the tomato with the sugar; when boiling, add the soda and combine it with the thickened milk. For serving, put a split cracker which has been dipped in warm water, in each plate.

One Of Strangest Trades

"Swamp Miners" Of New Jersey Probe Mud For Buried Cedar Logs

A rapidly diminishing race of men, known as "swamp miners," ply one of the world's strangest trades in wooded swamps and covelets of South Jersey—probing hundreds of feet for cedar logs buried a thousand years.

The miners have become as interesting to scientists as the strange nature of their trade which they have devotedly followed for generations in the secluded villages near the Atlantic coast.

Like gold miners the "swampers" work "claims" in the swamps and creek beds which make that part of New Jersey a maze of waterways comparable to the English fen country. George H. Cook, of Rutgers College, Assistant State Geologist, said one log a thousand years old was brought to the surface.

"Swamp miners" have found their trade very profitable but it is said to necessitate hardiness, expensiveness and skill. Standing in the cold, brackish water up to their waists, the miners push along iron spades into the mud where they think trees have fallen and then been submerged by the inroads of the Atlantic Ocean.

After locating a log they loosen a chip and bring it to the surface. It is said the miners can tell by smelling it whether the log was blown down alive or fell over dead. Only live logs can be used. After prying the logs loose from the ooze they shoot to the surface as rapidly and buoyant as a newly fallen tree. From these logs high-grade roofing shingles, cedar chests, and other articles, are made.

It is stated that elephants are very bad sailors. This probably explains why so few seafaring men adopt them as pets.

Gulf Stream Misbehaving

And Berlin Professor Is Predicting Another Glacial Age

The Gulf stream is behaving badly, according to a Berlin professor, who says it is flowing backwards in certain places. If it goes on like this we are told, we shall be back in a glacial epoch, some time or other. Many years ago the same charge was made against the Gulf Stream, and a journalist asked his editor what should be done about it. The editor, somewhat indignantly, replied that it was a good one-day story, which turned out to be a correct estimate. Another prophecy that in 20,000 years time we shall be enduring another ice age in Northern Europe, leaves us no not even cold. These long distance forecasts are safe enough to make, because when the time comes their authors will in all human probability be forgotten. We had much rather hear on reliable authority what the weather will be like this day week.

Outstanding Authorities

on Farming and Live Stock Offer You Practical Information and Advice Based on Many Years of Successful Experience

The greatest array of practical, usable ideas for the Canadian Farmer ever gotten together in one book and it is

FREE

This book is offered as a contribution to the development of farming and live stock breeding in Canada. A group of outstanding farmers and agricultural authorities have put into writing the methods and findings which in years of experience, have proved most successful.

The practical experiences of these men have been compiled for Imperial Oil Limited, by the Hon. Duncan Marshall, former Minister of Agriculture for Alberta, and put into the book "Field and Farm Yard" which is a veritable storehouse of information and advice based upon actual and successful farm operation.

This book is offered to you free by Imperial Oil Limited. "Field and Farm Yard" has been written by specialists in farming and stock breeding. There are articles on feeding beef steers and dairy cows, written by Thos. McMillan, M.P. and S. G. Carlyle, Alberta Live Stock Commissioner. Selecting sires for herds, flocks, and studs is discussed in each branch by men competent in this business, among them being W. A. Dryden, Col. Bartley Bull, Col. Robert McEwen, W. L. Carlyle and R. A. Wright. Grain farming is treated by Dr. C. E. Saunders, producer of Marquis Wheat. All recommendations are based on the practical experience of farmers who are now using them to increase their incomes.

In the Introduction which Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Federal Minister of Agriculture, has personally contributed to this book he writes in part: "The information is of such a useful character and covers such a wide field in agriculture that the book cannot fail to be of interest, and value to any and every farmer into whose hands it may fall." "Field and Farm Yard" is handsomely illustrated. Among its many illustrations

"Oh yes," he replied absently.
"You were gone for some time this morning she stated."
"Yes," he concurred, "I went up to bring Connie."
"Oh!"
Janet's fine eyebrows lifted slightly, and she looked at Donald with a curious intention. "Why didn't she come?"
"She wasn't home."
Her woman's intuition long ago
had told her that the "woodsprite"— as Donald called Connie—was madly in love with him. As she looked at him now and noticed his pre-occupied pier air, a pang of jealousy shot through her heart like an arrow.
Was it possible that he had begun to realize that the wild girl of the woods was not a child, and that a lover for her had been kindled in his heart? The thought made her feel faint and she tried to put it from her mind.

Lunch was finished now and they were walking back to the lake.
Douglas invited the party to take a trip around the lake in a motor-boat, to which they assented gleefully.

Janet hesitated as Donald turned away with Wainwright. "Aren't you coming Mr. McLean?" she called.

Donald turned and shook his head.
"I may be needed here," he said briefly.

Janet flushed to the roots of her dark hair and bit her lip in anger.
She was not used to being thwarted in her desires.

Donald and Wainwright seated themselves on a bench under the willows and lighted cigarettes. Donald was ill at ease. The sound of Connie's tragic sobbing was ringing in his ears. He could see her little figure writhing on the ground in a tempest of grief that had torn at his heart-strings. He sprang involuntarily to his feet and began pacing the ground with quick, nervous strides.

Wainwright glanced up at him interrogatively.
"You seem worried," he volunteered.

"I am," Donald admitted briefly.

Donald was in a wretched of indeci-lion. How should he broach this delicate subject? Although poor as he the proverbial church-mouse, Connie's father had the pride of Lucifer.

There was natural dignity in his bearing, a certain aloofness in his manner, that in no way interfered with his unflinching courtesy, but had always precluded exchange of intimacies. He had resided in this wilderness for many years, but none could say that they had any more knowledge of his affairs at this moment than on the day of his arrival.

Donald decided to take the plunge.
He got down on the bench beside Connie's father, and related the scene
he had witnessed that morning—
of Connie's preening before the mirror with the magazine page pinned to the logs; of the struggle with her hair; of the flour sack, and of the pitiful sobbing of the heart-broken child.

Wainwright's face flushed painfully.
There was a look of poignant suffering in his grave eyes. Of all the races in the world, the English—especially of the better class—light most stoically to their distress.

Wainwright leaned forward, his throat working convulsively as he struggled to regain composure.

"I hope you do not consider me presumptuous," said Donald, a note of anxiety in his tone.

Wainwright's hand reached forth to clasp Donald's firmly. "No, I do not doubt your sincerity. An inordinate sense of pride has kept me in my present circumstances. This circumstance you have related has brought me to a realization that it is a selfish pride, as it has denied Connie the privileges to which she is entitled. There is nothing I can say," he went on in bitter self-condemnation, "that can even partially condone or palliate my stupidity. I should have known that she would require proper clothing now that she is grown up. As a matter of fact—"

he paused, his distress acute—"my finances are at a low ebb."

"How old is Connie?" asked Donald, hoping to relieve Wainwright's embarrassment.

"Nineteen."

Donald's head came up with a jerk. "Nineteen?" he almost shouted.
"She is nineteen," Wainwright replied, a peculiar expression in his eyes as he noticed Donald's bewilderment.

"Nineteen?" Donald re-echoed, a bemused look on his face. "Great Scott! This is a surprise. I thought of Connie as being not more than fourteen or fifteen."

"Connie's beautiful outdoor life has tended to keep her young, and her mode of dressing enhances the youthful effect," said her father as he sat down wearily, a far-away look in his eyes. "Her mother," he went on softly, a tremor in his voice, "was just like her, at the age of twenty-five she looked almost a child." He turned to Donald. "No doubt, you have wondered why I buried myself in this wilderness?"

Donald nodded. At this moment they were interrupted by members of the Sports Committee, who wanted Donald's advice in a matter pertaining to the afternoon's programme.

It was evident to Donald as he withdrew that Wainwright had been about to disclose his past history, a history which had been locked in his heart these many years.

At three o'clock the crowd began drifting toward the race-course. The centre of the valley had been cleared of underbrush, and the long grass burned under the watchful eye of the fire-ranger. A small creek and a few swampy places had been "corduroyed" with cedar poles and then covered with soil. A judges' stand, with a few hastily erected seats for Janet's party, stood near the finishing point.

The horse-race as has been said, was to be the feature event of the day.
The crowd surged happily from the lake-shore to line up in orderly ranks about the oval.

The brilliant and diversified colours of the Klutchemen's skirts and head-gear showed in bright contrast to the drab wearing apparel of the white men. The Siwash Indians were dressed in the most striking and colorful costumes, and all wore wide-brimmed cowboy hats and displayed silk handkerchiefs of gorgeous hues, knotted at the throat to drape their shoulders carelessly.

Three husky farmers' sons from Femerton rode to the starting-line amid hearty hand-clapping and shouting from their friends. A swarthy-skinned rider, mounted on a spirited black cayuse, came prancing through the crowd. He lifted his hat and smiled in acknowledgment of the plaudits of the spectators. This was Joe Lafonte, the half-breed who had won first prize at the Lillooet races for the past two seasons.

The wise ones averred that Paul John, of the Indian contingent, would give him a hard race. Paul John's cayuse was young, but the previous year he had run the half-breed's horse a close second. Money was being placed on all sides, particularly by the Indians, who are inveterate gamblers. Amid an excited babbling in Chinook, nine Indian riders came laughing and shouting, with much waving of hats, to prance about and display their horsemanship before the admirer crowd.

Donald, with Andy, Gilts and Wainwright, stood leaning over the edge of the judges' stand watching the amusing scene below.
At this moment there was an application at the far end of the oval, where the crowd opened to admit a horse and rider that came tearing down the course like the wind.

"Look!" Donald shouted excitedly as he "seized Wainwright's arm."

"It's Connie!"
Down the course, riding like a sprite of the woods, came the girl, her golden hair blowing about her face, sitting astride her mettlesome horse and riding as if the wilderness belonged to her alone.

Pegasus was not used to crowds.
With arched neck and quivering flanks he reared on his hind-legs to avoid an instant, then leaped forward like a rabbit. Connie sat on the bare back of her adored cayuse as though a part of the animal, her slender body moving in gentle undulations in perfect co-ordination with the movements of the horse. She was hard set to keep from running over the other riders who sat mouths agape.

Connie was unknown to the greater part of the crowd. To them this child-like equestrienne, with her mass of shining hair, appeared as an apparition. Her firm little hands soon checked her turbulent mount, and she stood at last, calm and composed.
The crowd gave her a rousing welcome as soon as they had recovered from their astonishment.

"Who is she? Where does she come from?" they shouted.

Connie kept her eyes fixed on the ground. She was outwardly calm and serene, inwardly she was as nervous as her fretting cayuse, and did not dare raise her flushed face to meet the battery of eyes around her.

Automobile Is Real Benefit To Humanity

Curse Is Man Who Does Not Use It Wisely

The automobile, in itself, cannot be a curse to anyone. The curse of the automobile is that of the human element, of the man who does not know how to use wisely an instrument of real benefit to humanity.

Unfortunately the human element cannot always be controlled. There always will be those who use automobiles for law-breaking purposes, and who drive them so recklessly as to endanger the lives of other people.

If all automobile owners and drivers were imbued with a real sense of their responsibility to their fellow men, there would be very few accidents and there would be no need of judges or anyone else having to make remarks derogatory to a machine that has become an essential part of this country's life.

and prove it.

Small Son: "What are diplomatic relations, father?"
Wise Parent: "There are no such people, my boy."

Succeeds To Title

Resident Of Vancouver, Through
Death Of Cousin, Becomes a Baronet

A second Canadian romance of the British peerage within recent weeks has come to light in Vancouver. In the succession of Eric Windham, Francis Carmichael-Anstruther, to the baronetcy of Carmichael and Anstruther.

The Vancouver man, now Sir Eric Windham Francis Carmichael-Anstruther, bart., has left for the family
seat, Carmichael House, Thankerton, Lancashire, Scotland, to settle matters in connection with the estate following the death of his cousin, Sir Windham Frederick Carmichael-Anstruther, bart.

Sir Eric expects to be in the old country about three months, after which it is his intention to return to Vancouver, where he has been employed as a draftsman for the past three years.

Sir Eric comes of a very old Scottish family which traces its ancestry for 700 years. He will be the 11th baronet of Anstruther created in Scotland in 1700, and eighth of Carmichael, created in England, in 1798.
According to a directory of titled persons he will also assume the honor of hereditary carver of the royal household in Scotland and one of the masters of the household.

Recipes For This Week

(By Betty Barclay)

FRUIT FRITTERS

- 2 oranges.
- 1 egg.
- 1/2 teaspoon salt.
- 1/2 cup milk.
- 1/2 cup flour.
- 1/2 tablespoon cooking oil.
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder.
- 1/2 teaspoon sugar.

Beat egg until light; add milk,
flour, sifted with baking powder,
sugar and salt, and oil or melted butter. Beat until smooth. Pare oranges, removing membrane with peel, cut in slices, and sprinkle with sugar and a few drops lemon juice.
Dip each slice, but enough to brown a piece of bread while counting to sixty. Dip orange sections in batter mixture, and fry in deep fat until puffed and brown. Do not fry too many at one time. Drain on brown paper, sprinkle with powdered sugar, and serve with orange sauce.

APPLE AND ORANGE SALAD

Peel and slice oranges, rejecting white membrane. Cut wedge-shaped slices from red apples, without paring. Arrange on lettuce-covered salad plates, using alternate slices of orange and apple.

GRAPEFRUIT SALAD

Peel oranges and grapefruit and divide into segments, rejecting all white skin. Arrange a circle of orange segments on a lettuce-covered salad plate and fill centre with grapefruit segments.

Reduce the Acid

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid.
The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour.
Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless, tasteless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Since its invention, 50 years ago, it has remained the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours.
Be sure to get the genuine Phillips'
Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore.

Inventor's Claim Unusual

Wisconsin Chemist Says His Mechanical Device Can Be Taught

Claim that he has invented a mechanical device which is capable of being "taught" is made by Dr. H. D.
Baernstein of the University of Wisconsin physiological chemistry department, following a challenge issued six months ago by C. L. Hull, professor of psychology at the state school.

Dr. Baernstein's "thinking" apparatus consists of numerous switches, wires and an incandescent light.
This mechanism, he said, is so arranged that the bulb may be lighted by one of the switches and that any of the other switches may be "taught" to light the bulb. The operation, he claims, is analogous to the presentation of stimuli.

"The machine," Dr. Baernstein declared, "is merely a symbol of mechanism of the human body."

Externally Or Internally, It Is Good.—When applied externally by brisk rubbing, Dr. Thomas' Electric Liniment opens the pores and penetrates the tissue, touching the seat of the trouble and immediately affording relief. Administered internally, it will still the irritation in the throat which induces coughing and will relieve affections of the bronchial tubes and respiratory organs. Try it and be convinced.

Just a Memento

First Housewife—"I suppose you carry a memento of some sort in this pocket of yours?"

Second Ditto—"Yes, it is a lock of my husband's hair."
"But your husband is still alive?"
"Yes, but his hair is gone."

Has a Reason

The mayor of Minneapolis has been asked to confiscate and destroy all the Gideon Bibles in that city.
The reason is logical enough—the Scriptures say a lot about St. Paul but nothing about Minneapolis.

None of us ever gets anything for nothing, but that doesn't keep us from trying.

Little Helps For This Week

"Do thy diligence,"—2 Timothy
iv. 9.

There lies no desert in the land of life;
For 'e'en that treat that barrenest doth seem.

Laborers of these, in faith and hope,
shall have
With heavenly harvest and rich gathering life.

—Frances Kemble.

When you awake in the morning,
and when that heavy pain wakes too,
—oh, so sharply!—and the burden of a monotonous life falls down upon you, or rises like a dead, blank wall before you, making you turn round on your pillow, longing for another night instead of an insupportable day, rouse yourself. Remember what you are,—a child of God; say,
"What have I got to do today?" Not "What have I to enjoy or suffer?" but "What have I to do?" Don't try to be happy, but try to work, work for God, and happiness will come.
